Dear Work Experience Participant,

You recently participated in a work-based learning experience. In order for us to evaluate the importance of this experience in your career preparation, we would like you to complete the following survey.

Participation is voluntary and the information collected in this survey will be used to improve the support provided to our clients.

Results of this survey may be published in reports but no personal identifying information will be published. When we receive your response, any identifying information will be removed (e.g. your name, email address, name of employer, etc.)

The collected information will be reported in a compiled, non-identifiable format. We may quote responses to the final questions on the survey, but only in a format that does not reveal your identity.

Feel free to leave a question blank if you do not wish to respond.

Once the survey is complete please fax to Joblink Midwest on 9921 3842, or scan and email it to: lauren@joblinkmidwest.com.au

Thank you for your help!
